Alissa, you were my friend who I ran the streets with as a kid, we made jokes about silly odd things, dressed up in face paint and went out feeling wild, and had a lot of fun together. I never really knew how life went for you after we parted in high school, but I always appreciated when we caught up, and I was always rooting for the best for you. You were someone who was kind, lively, loving and humorous. I hope you are at peace now. You will always be in my memories and heart. Thanks for being my friend.
