Peggy was born on May 13, 1928, in Stilwell, OK. As a child, she was fiercely protective of her little brother Perry and began teaching Bible school at a very young age. Peggy was runner-up football queen and class secretary at Bagley High School in Tahlequah. She worked for Hillcrest hospital as a nurse's aide for more than 30 years.
Peggy, a proud citizen of the Cherokee Nation, was a fantastic cook, her specialties being cream puffs and chicken and dumplings and legendary gardener, once growing a 10-foot-tall okra plant. Up until her late 80s, she mowed her own lawn and edged it with shears and could be seen walking a mile round-trip to Batman's Good Food. In her free time, she enjoyed sewing quilts by hand, ballroom dancing,visiting neighbors, and shopping at Community Thrift Store. She will be remembered for her generosity, strength, and sense of humor.

A memorial is scheduled for 10:00 a.m.on Friday, January 4, 2019, at Serenity Funerals in Tulsa. All are welcome to attend and celebrate Peggy's life.
