Kevin,
My heart aches for you and your family. You will find strength in the love you shared with your wife and the love all your family and friends share with you now.

I am so sorry for your loss. Wendy was a wonderful lady. I enjoyed the fun times we had playing bunco together. She was so full of life and loved her girls and husband. I lived across the street from Becky for almost 25 years and was kept up on all the events as your family grew up. I am a cancer survivor and know a few things of the fight she was going through. I do not feel like she has lost the battle. She has definately won the war and we will see her again. My prayers are with your family and I pray that God will comfort you in the days to come.

My sweet sweet friend.... You have been one of my "go to girls" for as long as I can remember. We made some priceless memories! There are so many things I will miss about you but your contagious laugh and loving heart is what I will miss most. You will FOREVER live in my heart and in the eyes of your beautiful daughters. You were an amazing Wife, Mother and Friend and my life would not have been complete with out you in it. Spread your wings and fly darlin' until we are together (giggling) again. I love you BIG AS THE SKY
