

Guenter Anton Kornmueller

June 25, 1942 - December 29, 2020

Guenter Anton Kornmueller, 78 of Tulsa, OK passed away peacefully on Tuesday December 29, 2020. He was born to Anton and Elisabeth Kornmueller on June 25, 1942. He immigrated from Austria to the United States in order to live the American Dream in the 1960s. He built a business, a family and in later years a ministry. He was a loving husband, father, friend and citizen. He will be missed by many.

Guenter was born in Vienna, Austria. His early education was in Pottendorf, Austria and he completed a degree in engineering in Weiner Neustadt, Austria. He emigrated to the U.S. where he applied his skills as a designer and machinist of plastic molds. Through applying his skills he built two business during his career which manufactured injection plastic molds as well as tool and die work. Later in his career, he and his wife moved to Tulsa, Oklahoma to be near family. They joined Victory Christian Church and felt called to be missionaries for Christ. They received training at Victory Bible Institute and set out to preach the gospel. Their ministry focused on the Dominican Republic, Sudan, Burma and others. When not ministering, Guenter continued work as a design consultant. He ended his career as an instructor teaching manufacturing and machining at a technical college. Guenter loved to carve wood and created several pieces his family cherishes. He also loved to ski. He always had a heart to help others.

His family will always remember the love he showed them.

Guenter is survived by his wife Allene Kornmueller of 51 years, son Jason Kornmueller, daughters Ellen Mader, Bonnie Arnould and Deborah Saldarini, and sister Ingrid. He was a granddaddy to Justin Jones, Lindsay Jones, Tyler Arnould, Caroline Arnould, Ryan Milana, Courtney Somers, and Brent Saldarini and Christopher Milana. He was great granddaddy to Carter Somers. He will also be missed by his sons-in-law Doug Mader and Forrest Arnould III, daughter-in-law Natalie Kornmueller as well extended family members in New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

There will be celebration of his life on Saturday morning January 9, 2021 at 11 a.m. at Victory Christian Center, 7700 S Lewis Ave, Tulsa, OK. In lieu of flowers the family requests a donation be made to Victory Christian Center in support of missionaries.
