“ This has all happened so fast. The Lord took you because he needed you. I was on my way to see you, but life always gets in the way and I was too late, something you no longer need to worry about. I am happy you are no longer in pain and you are now with your momma. Please give my mom, my dad, and my Stacy a big hug for me and tell them I am waiting for the day I can see them again.

You and Barry always made a great couple and I worry about him, Jennifer, Wesley, and Jeremy, all those you left behind too early. I will pray for them to understand this life is just for a little while and they will one day spend eternity with you. I pray the lord will comfort them in their time of need and help them through their grief. I love you Pam and will see you again soon!

“ Pam when we last talked I was so thankful that you knew the Lord. I know now you are at peace and are resting. You aren't hurting anymore. Your family will miss you dearly, they have such great love for you. I feel like the Good Lord gave you more time to be with your family to be able to cherish them a bit longer to say the things you needed to say to each one. We were all touch and blessed by Pam and all have great memories of her. We all have great memories of Pam and that will help with those moments of missing her. She will be dearly missed and I will continue to pray for you Cousin Barry, Jennifer, Wes, and Jeramy.

“ My dear brother Barry, my niece Jennifer, my nephews Wes and Jeremy, I can't imagine or pretend to know the gravity of your loss. No one will ever be quite like Pam, she was a special soul and she will be dearly missed by me and so many others. I will never forget her and will always recall the fond memories we created and shared over the years. We were all so lucky to have and she was taken far too soon from us. She had a kind heart and loved her children, grandchildren, Miley and most of all my brother Barry, and he cherished and loved her right back. Her laugh was infectious! Her smile was beautiful! She will always live on in our memories. Her spirit won't be forgotten. She will stay with us forever. We are mourning her loss and she would want everyone to be ok and happy.....so we must honor her and her wishes. God has her now and that's as good as it gets.....we will see you soon sis.....Kelsey McLemore Reynolds

“ My heart aches for you Barry and all who knew and loved Pam. I remember the good times when we would get together long ago. The kids were all little and we had a houseful of fun, noise and fun! I will keep all in my prayers. It's hard to say goodbye to someone you love so dearly. Remember the good and be thankful that Pam will suffer no more. God Bless and love to all

“ Ever since I was a little girl Aunt Pam was my favorite person in the world. I remember staying the summer with her and Uncle Barry and not wanting to go home. She was always there for me when I needed to talk, lend advice and "just because". As far back as I can remember every time we left each other she always did "I love you" in sign language. Today I got that tattoo in memory of her, with her initial and of course her husband, my Uncle Barry's initial. I always remember the love that they had and the way they looked at each other you knew it was that true meaning of love. I always wanted exactly what they had, and I'm proud to say I do have that person and the love like they shared. They will forever be my inspiration!
