“ To the family of Alyssa Lee Lee Long I'm sending my love & prayers to you all. I met Lee Lee over Tee's house and that sameday she started calling me mama tacko cause that's what Tee, Tish, & Kay Kay called me we all use to be at Tee's laughing & talking as we was getting ready to go out. You became one of my daughters so when I heard of your passing I was hurt I know you are up there with God now. Fly high my child. Love Mama Tacko

“ *My Beautiful Daughter/Sister.
Raising you was such a blessing. I watched you grow from elementary to middle school and as I held your hand from middle school to high school, you reassured me you got it and will remember what you were taught. As you became an adult you also reassured me you have not lost your way. Life has definitely taught you many things. But the blessing was, you remained a Child of God. Despite the tribulations, you chose to be saved at the age of 17. Now, as you have gained your wings we will miss you on this earth But we know, "to be absent from the body, is to be present with the Lord." We Love you Baby girl.*
