

Anna Frances Brown

July 18, 1949 - November 23, 2024

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

NB

“ Anna Francis Brown A former long-time employee of Tulsa Public Schools, died late Friday Nov 22 in her daughter’s Porter residence after a long-time illness, she was 75 years old. Anna was devoted mother of two girls also enjoyed and was proud of her grandson. Anna, a 1968 graduate of Corona (CA.) high School, received her journalism degree from San Hose State University and came to Oklahoma as a Vista volunteer in 1972. Later she was a news editor for the Wewoka Daily Times where she met her future husband Michael Brown of Tulsa, OK they were married in 1976. She was tender-hearted, long suffering, and hard working. She was a loyal democrat and member of the United Methodist church. She loved genealogy, modern dance, gardening and great books. She spent her retirement years volunteering for various causes including significant contributions to the South West Tulsa Historical Society was the editor of The Southwest Tulsa news. She is survived by her former husband Mike Brown, daughter Nassus Brown of Porter, Ok, grandson Addison Brown of Sapulpa, OK, a sister Ellen Jakubowski of Winslow, AZ and a brother David Black of Unicoi, TN. She was preceded in death by her parents and her daughter. She is being cremated and there are future plans for a small memorial service for friends and family

---

Nassus Brown - November 23, 2024 at 08:08 PM