The Life and Legacy of Anterio Laraun Wright

Anterio Wright was born October 25th, 1987, to the parents of William and Elouise Holmes. Anterio, aka Terio, the second oldest of seven siblings attended Morning Star Baptist Church every Sunday with his family growing up. Terio attended Marshal Elementary, Nimitz Middle, Hamilton Middle, Rogers High, and Nathan Hale High School. He later received his welding license from Tulsa Welding School and began utilizing his gifts of welding and painting as a career. In 2008. Terio became a father to his oldest daughter Sha'Kyra, and later became the father to his youngest daughter Avyona in 2020. Terio was known for his calm nature, fun-loving sense of humor, and infectious laugh!

Terio enjoyed spending time with his children, family get-togethers, and playing games like 2K, Uno, Dominos, and especially Spades, which seemed to be his favorite because he "won" the most games according to him!

Anterio was preceded in death by his father William A. Holmes, his aunt Sheila A. Wright, His grandmother Easter Wright, and his grandfather Louis C. Wright.

Anterio passed away on Thursday, August 24th, 2023. He leaves behind to cherish his wonderful memories to his two beautiful daughters Sha'Kyra Jackson and Avyona Ball, two wonderful brothers Demario and Antron, five beautiful sisters Ebony, Shaunta, Vondy, Precious, and Brandy, five nephews, six nieces, as well as a host of close relatives and loved ones.

Visitation will be 3pm to 8pm Thursday September 7, 2023 and Funeral 1:00pm Friday September 8, 2023 both at Serenity Funerals and Cremation Chapel.
