Billy Hogue was my friend, but once you got to know him, you was like a part of his family forever and I never thought I would have to say goodbye like this. Billy was an original for sure! A man with so many talents, especially in music and craftsmanship and he loved making everyone laugh, which was also a talent of his! I truly believe he would want us to remember the good times he shared with us. He was always talking about his dog Mystic and how he was so thankful to have and love Malea. I am so blessed knowing him and having him as a friend! Love ya always Billy and love and prayers to your family and friends! 💕

My dad and I just reconnected in 2013, and I'm so grateful that I got to know him and his great sense of humor, amazing musical talent, and his love. I'm very thankful for the times we had together.

Billy worked at our store most of his life and I got to grow up with this crazy little guy. Some of the best times of my life was working with him. We had so much fun and he always had some new gag he would pull on customers. The world could use alot more Billy Hagues. Billy, you were my friend, my brother, and on behalf of The Ferguson family, we will miss you. Thank you for filling our lives with happy times and wonderful memories.

Billy & I had a beautiful 10 years & 8 months together. We were true soul mates. He was the most loving, strong, funny, talented & noble man I have ever known. My life, as well as his family members lives, will never be the same.

Billy was preceded in death by his brother Roy Hogue his mother Barbara Hemphill, his grandparents & great grandparents, as well as many of his fellow musicians.

My love, I know you are in Heaven playing music with your mom, brother, grandpa, & so many of your friends. You are free of the weight & pain of life now. I can hardly wait to see you again! You are for all eternity the love of my life & my soul mate. I never knew that love could be so beautiful & pure. My heart aches beyond belief, but I know we will see each other again.

“ I'll definitely miss all his shenanigans and random videos and pics he'd send. I'm so thankful that he made such an impact, but that was him, he was a big guy in a small package. He will forever live in our hearts and memories of him will bring smiles for years ❤️

“ Billy was a lifetime friend for over 45 years. We created such great music together, broke bread together, laughed and joked until we were exhausted, cried, and shared our hopes and dreams. I loved him and his family as he did mine.
