

Bradley Guy Winsett

June 1, 1949 - November 30, 2017

Bradley Guy Winsett of Minneapolis, Kansas passed away Thursday, November 30th, 2017 in Tulsa, Oklahoma at the age of 68. He was born June 1, 1949 in Concordia, Kansas to Verl and Esther (McGowan) Winsett.

He grew up in Minneapolis and graduated from Minneapolis High School. While in High School he attended technical school for air conditioning. He worked for Northern Natural Gas/Enron for 20 years.

He moved to Eagle Rock, Missouri in 1992 where he owned and operated a small Convenience and Fishing Tackle store. He also managed a lumber yard in Cassville, Missouri. He then went to work as a Corrosion Inspection Contractor in the oil and gas industry.

He loved hunting, fishing, and motorcycles, along with his Sonic Pity Blast. He was an awesome story teller. Everyone he met fell in love with him as he was easy to talk to.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a sister, Cindy Marymee and a beloved uncle, Galen Shirk. He is survived by his beloved lady friend, Mona Johnson of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma; son Jason and wife Kim Winsett of Minneapolis; grandchildren Ariel (Zach) Troutman of Wichita, Kansas, Alex McCullough of Wichita, Kansas, Kolton Hoppe and Kara Winsett both of Minneapolis; great grand daughter Eileanora Troutman. He is survived also by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and loyal lifetime friends.

Memorial Service will be 10:00am Saturday, December 9, 20-17 at Pathway Church, 845 Woodland Ave., Minneapolis, Kansas. The family asks that if you have Harley attire, feel free to wear it.
