“ Brandon was my neighbor in Tulsa for a little while. He offered to help me every time he saw me with anything I was doing. If I contacted him for help he was here to do it right away, no questions asked. He was always kind, always polite and respectful. I have missed him since he moved away because he was a shining light in an often dull world. He was helpful to all of us in the building at our apartments He became like a son to another neighbor & my heart aches for her sadness.

I send thoughts of peace in the hearts of all his family and friends and his canine best friend, Capone.

Rest in peace Brandon Oney. I will think of you often and try to pay forward your caring, thoughtful friendship.

“ Brandon was my nephew and he was always happy and smiling. He was diagnosed with diabetes at an early age, but it never got him down. He was still happy. He was a hard worker and loved his kids. He will be missed by many. Fly high Brandon til we met again. Love you ❤️
