

Brenda Rene Davis

January 4, 1956 - October 10, 2021

Brenda Fielder Davis

Born Jan 4, 1956 to Robert & Patsy Fielder in McCook, Nebraska and died October 10, 2021 in Tulsa, OK. The family moved to Bartlesville, Oklahoma in 1957, where Brenda attended Highland Park Elementary, Madison Jr. High, and Sooner High School. Her first and greatest love was her family. Although she didn't ride, rodeo played a big part in her life. Her rodeo friends were family to her. She loved camping, fishing, exploring, and anything outdoors. She often said nature was her church where she felt God and was at peace.

When she was young, she was a member of Memorial Christian Church where her Uncle Cecil Key was the minister, Aunt Helen Key was the glue, and Grandmother Rose Fielder played piano; many Uncles were deacons and elders. She had a plethora of Aunts, Uncles, cousins, and friends whom she loved spending time with and telling stories.

She was preceded in death by her parents Robert & Patsy Fielder, her great niece Kyra Fielder, and her best friend Debbie Elgin. She is survived by many who loved her, including two brothers Bob (Daisy) Fielder, Lance (Melinda) Fielder, sister Jeanne Smith, her two children Justin Davis and Maegan (Keith) Schmidt, her two grandchildren Cheyenne Davis and Dakota Davis, her niece and three nephews, her cousins/sisters Anita (Clyde) Gage and Yvonne (Raymond) Stevens, her many cousins, her uncle Tom (Phyllis)

Reynolds, and a multitude of friends.

A fiercely independent woman, she lived the end of her life as she did throughout, writing this obituary, declaring she would not have a funeral, and choosing to be privately laid to rest with her beloved parents in Dewey, Oklahoma. She would always look forward to family reunions, and will no doubt be smiling as tales are now told about her and the memories and love she gave. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation in her honor to Porta Caeli House at portacaeli.org <<http://portacaeli.org/>>.
