

Bruce Eldon Sexton

April 26, 1953 - October 31, 2019

On April 26, 1953 in Claremore, Oklahoma a baby boy was born to Ruby Dann Johnico-Sexton and Clifford Henry Sexton. They called him Bruce.

Bruce attended many different schools through the 10th grade. During his 11th grade, he said he was going to school in the front gate and out the back gate. It took a little bit before his mother realized that he had quit school. He loved to play baseball and pickup games of basketball. Bruce also enjoyed driving cars fast, attending car and truck shows and spending time with his family and "#1 grandson" Logan.

Bruce served in the Army from August 31, 1971 until October 10, 1975 where he received a marksman (rifle) award and National Defense Service Medal. After the service, he began his longtime career of 40 plus years of over the road truck driving. He was known by the CB handle "Sandman".

In 1980, a childhood friendship with Rebecca Jewell Bacon was renewed and grew into a lifetime of marriage on April 28, 1983. This bond produced one child, Justin Neil Sexton, whom he referred to as his "#1 son".

Bruce passed from this world on October 31, 2019. He was preceded in death by his parents, Ruby and Clifford Sexton.

He is survived by his loving wife, Becky Sexton, one son and his spouse, Justin and Elizabeth Sexton. Also living are 8 grandchildren, Dawn and Bobby Petit, Johnathan, Mary Sander, Logan Sexton, Mikel and Maggie DeBon, Phelan Clark and one great grandchild Robert Dean Petit. He also leaves behind one brother Michael Dewayne Sexton and wife Gloria Sexton and many more family and friends. He will be greatly missed by each one.
