Bryson worked as a manager for Okie Car Wash for the past 4 years. He enjoyed making music and being a DJ. He loved riding dirt bikes, playing frisbee golf, sports (especially soccer, baseball, and football) as a child. Family time meant a lot to him and grilling out at family events. He was actively involved in a band, NTH Records, with his Uncle Wes and other band members.

Bryson is survived by Michelle Stephens. Daniel and Melissa Stephens. Tyler, Danashi, Aemiliana, and Tylan Stephens. Justin Stephens. Shaeliegh, Brian, Braeliegh, and Hoston Newton. Nick and Alyssa Stephens. Nathan Sweat. Makayle Stephens. Uncle Wesley Hurt. Grandparents Virginia and John Gonzalez. Many other family and friends.

Bryson was one of the most thoughtful souls. He always wanted to make you smile and laugh. He gave more than he asked for and loved beyond measure. His life was music and in his lyrics he found comfort and strength. He always promised he would take care of his family when he made it big. He carried this quote with him, "If you don't have time to live your life now, when do you?". It was never goodbye with him but dueces.

"You better not touch my chain" -Bryson

“ I was so speechless when I saw his picture on your face book Michell Stephens. I will never forget when his older brothers brought Bryson to she salon, sometimes they would bring us coffee and a burrito. Bryson was so polite to everyone in the salon. I love you Michelle, I hate that you are grieving. I am sending hugs to you sweet Michelle. You were an awesome mother to all of your boys, and loved them unconditionally. If there is anything I could do, let me know, please. Many prayers for comfort my sweet Michelle.

“ I had the honor of knowing Michelle and the boys when she and I worked together at Vanity's salon in Abilene. Such a loving family. It's hard to imagine how time passes that they are grown men, but especially hard to hear that the youngest has passed away. My thoughts and prayers are over Bryson's family. Love you Michelle! ~ Margaret Molina
