Caliste ♡Bubba♡ Beard, III, was born March 26, 1961, in New Orleans, Louisiana, and died in his home, in the early morning hours of April 27, 2017, in Coweta, Oklahoma. He left this world peacefully and painlessly, circled by dear friends, holding his hands, as he took his last breath. He was 56 years young. He was the son of Marie Janet Hanks and Caliste Beard, Jr. He resided in and around Lafayette, Louisiana for his young life and through college and lived in Oklahoma, all of his professional life.

He loved his work; he lived for it. He also loved his motorcycles and riding buddies. He loved to cook Cajun food for all his friends and they loved his cooking. “ Caliste, gone too soon. May your family feel the comfort of the loving arm of God around them at this time.

I was privileged to work with Caliste in several different ways. I was an application programmer at first and only knew him as one of the gurus that worked in the famous Realtime Coverage group. They held the power to leave you code in and allow you to work with it or get it out of the system. I then moved to systems engineering and was able to get better acquainted with him through many long hours of testing and implementing system updates. My final area to work with him was when I was allowed to join the Realtime Coverage group as a peer.

We will all miss you Caliste, however, let this only be see you later. We will see you in a little while friend, you just beat us there.
