

Callvina Faye Sanz

April 15, 1984 - December 14, 2025

Calli Sanz was born on April 15, 1984, in Sapulpa, Oklahoma. From the very beginning, she was a funny, helpful little girl with a great big heart. She had a deep love for animals that only grew stronger as she did—there was nothing she wouldn't sneak in, care for, or protect, from mice and iguanas to rabbits and dogs. Loving and nurturing came naturally to Calli, whether it was caring for animals or looking after those she loved.

Calli loved with her whole heart, and that love found its match when she met Luis while working at Resource One. He was the one who turned her head. They shared lunches, laughter, and simple joys—her favorite spot was Hero's, where she always ordered a Philly cheesesteak with no mushrooms, while Luis played pinball on the vintage Star Wars machine. If you knew Luis, you know.

Two years later, they were married, and for eleven years they were inseparable—the very picture of what love and marriage are meant to be. They adored one another deeply and shared a bond rooted in devotion, laughter, and mutual respect.

Calli was a woman of her word. If she said she was going to do something, she did it—and she did it right. She lived with intention, kindness, and an unwavering sense of loyalty to the people and animals she loved.

Calli is survived by her beloved husband, Luis Sanz, Pippa and Vader; her mother, Barbara Scott and Lilly; her father, Paul Henry; her Aunts, Susan Williams and Liz Dillinger; her sister Paula Schrable and other loving family members and friends who will cherish her memory forever.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made in Calli's honor to her favorite animal rescue, Oklahoma Pet Collective Society, a cause close to her heart.

Calli's love, compassion, and spirit will live on through all who were lucky enough to know her.
