“ When my kids were little I would take them down to Budd Park to play and I would meet some of my friends there for prayer meetings. I ran into Chana several times with her own children. I'm sure she prayed with us over those kiddos... I just specifically remember her always pushing her kids on the swings or encouraging them down the slide. She was older than me at school. I always thought she was just so beautiful. I looked up to her as her strong character and strength seemed to emanate from her. I was friends with her on FB in these later years. I always loved seeing her photos of her family. You could tell them meant the most to her. My strongest condolences to her loved ones. And my prayers that God would surround you with His comfort.
