“ I met Charles Junior in Japan. I was a substitute teacher at the school on base and he was one of my pupils. He was always a great kid and one of my favorite students. Being a boy, he would occasionally do silly “boy stuff” and get in trouble. I would often have to hide my smile and amusement at the silly things he would do that he wasn’t supposed to be doing. Silly-boy-stuff aside, all-in-all, Charles was an intelligent, funny, well mannered young man ready to conquer the world. I knew he was “going places” in this life. I am completely heartbroken, knowing that the world will miss out on everything Little Charles had to offer it. May you rest in peace sweet child.

“ Charles I hate that this is the way we have to communicate with you now. I am so sorry that this was a goodbye. I believe that You are now at eternal Peace with God. I am at a loss for words because never in a million years would this be what I thought for your future, but God had other plans. Just know we will continue to love on your Mama Dad and Sisters. Family over Everything always! We got them and we will keep you in our hearts always. This is a hard pill to swallow to watch how hurt your mom and dad are but I promise we got them! Love you little cousin I know you have some great tour guides to show you around up there ❤️

“ Charles, I love you so much as I do Xavier. Thanks for being a bonus son and such a good friend/brother to Xavier. He loves and misses you so much. You two were alike in so many ways. We thank God for bringing you into our lives. Your warm smile will live in our hearts forever. Your meek and humble spirit is one I wish others could have. You were such a good young man. But your spirit lives within all of us!!!!!! I promise we will keep your memories alive and laugh at videos. This one hurts. We love you. Rest in eternal love.

“ I can honestly say me knowing Charlse isn't here with me. Is something that truly does break me everyday. He was my best friend. Literally my best friend. Someone who brought joy to my heart and smiles to me everyday that we talked on the phone or hung out, nothing but good vibes when we were together. His favorite joke ever that he would always say to me is "Guess what?" and I'd say "what?" and he say "chickenbutt" and busts out laughing and I can't help but laugh with him. I've even started saying "OG" He loved saying that. I'll miss when would make plans for me to watch him play a game through the phone. Or just simply having him on the phone and we wouldn't say absolutely nothing but it was just the fact of me knowing he's on the phone with me was good for me. Like I really miss him. We had many plans together and we often times talked about how excited we were for our future and just coming up together. But Overall he was a strong, smart, charismatic, funny, caring, sincere, charming, and so much more. He was somebody you'd never want to lose. He was somebody you'd be so proud to call your friend or anything. I most definitely was. Charles. I miss you and I love you fam.
