“ Family, we extend to you our deepest sympathies during Charles' homegoing. Charles was a loving and very personable young man. He became my third child when i met him. I was most appreciative when he told me how much he loved Charity and he was her friend for life. He showed us love when we would see him and when we talked on the phone. His big smle, cheerful spirit, and hearty laughter will be forever etched in our hearts. We love you Charles, forever.
