“ 38 years ago my mom met this guy and I was like who the heck does he think he is? Well let me tell you he was a God-fearing man never missed a chance to tell someone about the love of Jesus and he made my mom a happy woman. He was beloved by all of his grandchildren and I am sure that he is in having rejoicing! He has prayed for me many times through the years and I will miss that. Rest in peace Grandpa Charlie

“ Charlie was my bonus Dad. He was very kind to me and my children. He and Mom took me and the kids in when I got divorced and made me feel so welcome. He loved God and was always ready to pray for anyone, anywhere, anytime. He asked everyone he ever met if they knew Jesus. I have no doubt that he is in heaven living his best life. We love you Grandpa Charlie.
