“ Though I only became acquainted with Connie in the past few months, through her best friend Jan Beckett, it quickly became evident to me that she had a lively sense of humor, loved well, and lived her faith on the "outside". I've rarely witnessed such a living testimony to God's love and faithfulness. Connie's constant desire was for her life to count for God's kingdom and to point everyone who came in contact with her toward Christ. She succeeded! I can only imagine how many lives she touched and how deeply she will be missed. She is with her Lord now, and we who know Him will see her again one sweet day! My prayers are with her family.

“ Connie, here on earth you were a very loved, respected, and admired lady. Go rest high on God's heavenly mountain and prepare for the special plans that are in store. To the family that has to continue on without sweet Connie, may God's love and peace carry you during your journey on this earth.

“ We grew up in a very loving family and we would rather be together than anything else in this world. All of us cousins love to sit and visit and reminisce and our favorite place to do that is at Aunt Maxine's house. It was Grandma and Grandpa's house when we were growing up, that is why we are drawn there. We had many years of fun in and around the house and in the barn. It is very hard to let go of one of us because of the love that we share. Connie, you were one of the younger ones, but that didn't make any difference, all were loved the same. It will be hard knowing that it will be a while before we see you again. There are lots of family over there, so tell them all that we still miss them too. I love you my dear sweet lady!
