

Cory Dale Byrum

September 1, 1979 - October 21, 2024

Cory Dale Byrum came barreling into this world on September 1, 1979, to meet his parents, Charles and Mary and big sister Chastidy, and left a hole in our hearts as he departed this earth on October 21, 2024.

Cory was a son, brother, uncle, father, and friend. He had a passion for the arts. He loved to write and draw. He made music with his brothers, and this brought him such joy. He wanted the world to love art the way he did. He found comfort and peace within it. He was an avid music listener, promising to listen to all kinds of music, even Justin Timberlake (that was to make his little sister happy). He never met a stranger and if you knew Cory then you had a friend. He loved to cook and create delicious meals for those he loved. He encouraged anyone to follow their dreams, even if he didn't understand those dreams. He listened with empathy and kindness and spoke with truth and wisdom. Cory had been working on a psychology degree because he wanted to be able to understand the mind, especially when struggling with addiction, and help more people. He was a lifelong learner and was always looking to enrich his mind.

Cory met the love of his life, Yvonne, when he was a young man. They spent many years together raising Vash, Kaitlyn, and Kyle. They enjoyed it when they got to spend time with Aiden, Cory's other son. Cory had several nieces and nephews that he enjoyed taking on adventures and spending time with. He loved to hear their stories, and they always seemed to brighten his day. With open arms, his mama and best friend, Bill Gray, along with numerous other family members and friends, welcomed him into the afterlife. He leaves behind his children, Vash, Kaitlyn, Aiden, and Kyle, his siblings, Chastidy and her husband Randy, Fish and his wife Jennifer, Chad, Bethany and her husband Tj, Charles and his wife Carrie, James, Christopher, Kenny, Jackson and his wife Amber, his father Charles, bonus mom Brenda, numerous nieces and nephews, aunts and uncles, cousins, and many dear friends that captured his heart.
