

Dana John Steinheimer

September 12, 2011

April 16, 1951 - September 13, 2011

Facts

Born: April 16, 1951

Place of Birth: St. Louis, MO

Death: September 13, 2011

Place of Death: Tulsa, OK

Occupation: Artist

Survived By

Deborah Thompson, Sister

Preceded in Death By

John J. Steinheimer, Father

Wanda D. Steinheimer, Mother

Services

Memorial Dedicated to the Genius, The Artist & The Man

Saturday November 26, 2011, 11:00 - ? at Dana's Home Click for Map and

Directions

Tribute Wall

DS

“ Dad, I miss you.

Sadly you've been gone from this place for almost eight years now.

I will forever miss you and remember the great times we shared together. Thank you for helping me with understanding the archetypal mind, and to better grasp the reality of this world.

That wisdom you shared will always give me a gigantic boost towards achieving my goals in life.

"Waiter, please send Dana John Steinheimer a Cafe Cubano and a pack of Jacks for him to enjoy, thank you, it's on me "

Love you,

Dana Sean Steinheimer

Dana Sean Steinheimer - October 22, 2019 at 05:08 AM

BW

Going thru old names and I came across my Army roommate in Bad Krueznach Germany. We lived off the post and had similar jobs at the Service Club. The best part we did not have to wear military uniforms. I also got to visit him in 1974 near Fort Lauderdale FL. and had a great time. I remember he was a great Artist and I was a Photographer. Still working my business under BobWestVideo.com in Bakersfield CA. Continue to RIP.

Bob West - March 02, 2024 at 12:56 PM