

Daniel John Eastman

April 18, 1969 - October 10, 2021

Daniel(Danny) John Eastman of Mannford, OK, passed away from this life at his home on October 10th, 2021. He was 52.

Danny was born to Elwin and Janet Eastman on April 18th, 1969 in Salt Lake City, Utah. He is proceeded in death by his mother.

Danny was a kind, gentle soul that never knew a stranger. He would do anything for anybody and was known for his contagious laugh. Danny was always finding things to fix or build in his free time. He also enjoyed brewing beer, a good cigar, rock crawling in their jeep, camping, watching movies with his wife and anything Star Wars related. He could spend the whole day watching Star Wars movies and shows.

He is survived by his wife, Christina Eastman of Mannford, OK; his father Elwin of Montana; daughters: Jordan Bailey, Raina Roshnaye and Maleah Eastman; step-son Kerkland Wiley; 8 brothers and sisters and 5 grandchildren.

He will be dearly missed. May the force be with him, always.

Thank you Betsy. I miss him every hour of every day, Kerk does as well. Kerk calls Danny his dad. He has for years. I have to deal with other things besides grief so I have a distraction to some degree with work and handling other things that were personal. But the grief is there always and when someone starts telling me how sorry they are for my loss I ALWAYS lose it until I can get it under control. Thank you for acknowledging his obit.
