“ I met David when I was 13 years old. I was smitten right away. He took me to my first concert...the Scorpions. We had so much fun together but drifted apart because we went to different schools and we were young but we ran into each other at a party during my junior or beginning of my senior year. He was in the Navy at this point. I remember telling my mom I was going to the lake with a friend on spring break but I actually flew to Philadelphia where he was stationed in the Navy. After I graduated from high school, I packed up my car and moved to be with him there. We eventually got married but it wouldn't be until 20 years later. I'm not going to go into all the struggles but one thing I can say is that we always remained friends over all the years and all of the ups and downs. I'm going to miss you David. I wish I would have got to tell you goodbye or at least tell you thank you for always being there for me. I will always treasure all of the memories I have of us together until I see you again one day. ❤️
