

Deaon Lamont Johnson

May 14, 1981 - February 14, 2023

Deaon Lamont Johnson was born on May 14th, 1981 to Barbara Ann Pleasant - Neal and Donald Ray Johnson in Mission Hills, California at the Holy Cross Hospital. Deaon had four siblings, all sisters, Tamara Raylette Johnson, Tanisha Michelle Barnes-Johnson (deceased), KaSandra Raylynn Johnson-Foreman, and Donyelle Lonette Johnson all being pretty close. Being the only son / brother, he was very protective. Deaon was full of life and loved having fun. He was always a dare devil having no fear whatsoever. Growing up, he was very humble and quiet but always happy and smiling in his own world. As he got older he began playing sports: Football, Basketball, and Karate. He was very athletic and active. This ability would follow him all through school. While in high school, he also worked with some of the mentally challenged students at West High in Salt Lake City, Utah. He soon transferred to Memorial High School in Tulsa, Oklahoma where he graduated in 1999. Deaon went on to gain a work ethic and began working at St. Francis Hospital for a few years meeting more life-long friends or as he would say "his peoples". To know surprise, everybody loved him. Deaon had a way with people and had so much love from everywhere, which made him so special. Over the years, he continued to meet people in different work places just all over. He got married in 2019 to Morgan Johnson and having two more kids making him a father of five beautiful children named Nevaeh Jai Johnson (19), De'Mariun Westley Nahkai Johnson (15), Asialynnia Louise Johnson (12), Deonna Jan'ae Ann Johnson (6), and Deaon Lamont Johnson, Jr. (4) to which he loved them all very much. All who knew Deaon, had a very close relationship with him, which he made sure of. He will never and cannot be replaced. We will cherish every special moment that we all shared with him. Deaon will be greatly missed. We lost an angel, a son, a brother, a father, a husband, a uncle, and a best friend all in one. You may be gone but you will never be forgotten. We will always love you, Deaon Lamont Johnson. Deaon is survived by his mother, father, wife, siblings, and his 5 children, nieces, nephews, and host of other relatives and friends. Thank you to all family and friends who took a part in this difficult journey.

“ I know this is random but I really miss you unc! I'm still trying to come to terms with the fact that your no longer here and it hurts real bad! I truly do miss you man and regardless of what people say we had a unspoken bond you were all I Knew YOU RAISED ME alongside Grandma B and whenever you or I had a problem we were there for each other which is why this is soooo hard because i would give anything to hear your voice. I love you I miss you and I will be waiting till I see you again. Love you Unk, Neicey Pooh

“ Just wanted to drop in and tell my family I love them and Deaon will be greatly missed. I remember the last time we saw each other the family was at our grandmother's house packing it up for her to move and we walked and talked and hung out at Liberty Park on Salt Lake City for a while. Never thought that would be the last time we would actually be able to spend time together but I hope everyone loves on and hugs each other in this great time of loss and sorrow. Prayers and blessings to all my family and Ilove and miss you my cousin Deaon L. Johnson.

“ What's good Unc. Mayne it's definitely going to be hard doing this thing called life without you here physically. You was my go to guy when I needed some advice. I knew you would lead me strong and never wrong. Your intentions was genuine and your love was pure. Imma miss you Unc. I know your still here with us spiritually so this isn't goodbye. Its just until we meet again on the other side. We love you Unc 100

“ *Deaon,
my big cousin, my best friend, shoulder to cry on I still can't believe it, I'm just waiting on you to pop up like you always do to check on me, hang out (sometimes all day), Sit and have long vent sessions about whatever! And when you left you always gave me a kiss on the forehead & said I love you cousin I'll get up with you soon, I miss you so much a piece of me is missing and it feels so empty. I have so many great memories of our times together and those I will always cherish in my heart forever! Rest up Big Cuz Love you forever you will be missed 💙💙💙

“ No words can explain the sorrow of losing you my brotha, but I'll try. We have been 10 toes down for over 20 years. When we first meet you were about 18, 19 and we just clicked automatically. You became more than just my friend, but my family. We watched each other grow as men. We where there for each other through the "L's" and the "W's". I miss listening to you cheer on your Raiders vs my Titans. The hours we spent in the studio were the most memorable. I still listen to your music we made 15 years ago, and I cry on how deep some of your messages were. We lived together, partied together, and we always talked about our relationship with God. I know you believed that Jesus Christ is our Lord and savior. So I know that we will meet again. Until then... I got MY TIME TO SHINE on rewind. I Love your family. Ms. B I have all the respect in the world for you. And to his children, your father was a good man. Carry on that legacy and do better. Im so sorry for your loss. With tears in eyes. Goodbye my brother. For now.

“ Dear Deaon,

The last time I saw YOU was back in the 90s when you was still a kid 😊 I remember meeting YOU when I first came by your house to pick up your sister Tamara and how polite and hospitable you were. You weren't THAT typical annoying little brother. The kind THAT makes you want to go outside and wait while your sister is getting ready lol. You would come out sit on the couch and we would chop it up about school your friends and even your Big SIS sometimes lol. Every time I called the house you knew who I was and would say hi and be so polite and that would make me feel special. You were such a handsome Lil Guy in YOUR demeanor how YOU carried yourself and ALL. Even though I hadn't seen YOU in years I would always ask Tamara about YOU because you made a lasting impression of someone that was NOT only kind and polite but was raised RIGHT. I wish I could have seen YOU grow into the King YOU turned into before you GOT YOUR Wings. YOU WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN and I WILL ALWAYS CONSIDER YOU MY BROTHER ❤️❤️❤️
REST EASY and GOD Bless 🙏🙏🙏
GOD Bless YOU MISS Barbara and Sister Tamara... Not only HAS YOUR FAMILY GAINED an Angel but a TRUE Soldier ❤️❤️❤️
Love YOU ❤️❤️❤️

“ This is your daughter asia. You will be missed by many and the last memory we had will forever be in my heart. I remember when you told me we would go to California together and how we would just get away for a while. I wish i could wake up and all of this would be a dream. But life is reality, i remember i was broken and you fixed me, i remember we would have talks while laughing and acting a fool. I cry all night wishing you could just come in my room and hug me. We had so many memories and to see u lay there with a smirk on your face hurts. Granny told me how you were going to visit me on Valentine's day. But now your up there watching down on all of us. Love u dad, rest easy 🥹

“ Deaon,

It's hard to grasp that I am speaking to you via tribute instead of wrapping my arms around you saying "Omg....look at you now taller than me when I remember being able to put you on my hip" Deaon you were my little brother by default. Because me and Tamara were so close and had younger siblings that we needed to care for, we both automatically knew to look out for each other's siblings. Whether it was watching you guys while playing in the playground or walking across the street to Filmore Elementary during the summer for lunch and to play. I'm picturing that cute little smile of yours and your laughter. You held it down being the only boy amongst 4 sisters, but you are that centerpiece that will always be cherished. Rest Well Deaon.

To Tam and the Family, please know that my thoughts, prayers, arms, and love are wrapped around you guys right now.

Love, Lashay

“*Deaon Lamont Johnson you were my friend and sometimes not. You were someone I could share my deepest darkest secrets with. We had our ups and downs but through it all we always manage to pull it together it was us against the world at the end of the day when you hurt I hurt we were almost the same you are just the boy and I am the girl! On Feb 14th a piece of my soul was snatched it's still feels like just a bad dream and I'm going to wake up and none of this was real. I have known you for 41 years which makes that all of yours and minus 5 of mines. I remember telling mom to take you back to wherever you came from and knew you were just there to visit and that was that. Now I'm asking God to bring you back. Know this little brother we have had our ups and downs what sibling don't. Know that it has been an honor and blessing to be your big sister it has been a blessing and thank God for allowing us to have shared half of our lives together here on earth so I say this with so much conviction and I'm the name of the father, the som and the Holy Spirit. UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN LITTLE BROTHER. I WILL ALWAYS CHERISH THE GREAT THE GOOD THE BAD AND THE UGLY THAT WE SHARED OVER THE YEARS. YOU WILL BE MY BEST FRIEND UNTIL ITS MY TIME. I LOVE YOU DEAON LAMONT JOHNSON

“Damn! Cuzzo I’m lost for words right now, this was so hard for me to even write this under these circumstances. We always been close like brothers use to fight when we were kids then Doshon and Brian will beat us both up lol. We talked damn near everyday for hours at times for years on end, On February 14, 2023 I woke up expecting to tell you “happy Valentine’s Day cuzzo” like I always do we always told each other that “I love you on a daily and always before we hung up from talking on the phone” your love was real you were solid as they come just like me that why we got along so well. But you will be truly missed cousin I’ve been crying every day thinking about how you passed it’s devastating to me, especially when I just spoke with you two days before this tragedy happened. We had plans for you to come out here to Cali with me so we can put some projects together and work on this music stuff. My heart definitely has a huge piece missing knowing I’ll never here your voice, laugh, and have our long talks about life. I guess now God! has a wonderful loyal Angel that will watch over me. Love you until the end of time with all my heart and soul. You’ll be forever with me.

“It doesn't seem real. You were just with us chilling playing dominoes & talking slick on the sly. Just like the old days kids playing & we all chilling. Our hearts truly ache. You will be missed but never forgotten. We have many stories and, so many memories. We will cherish them all forever. Rest in heaven & peace. 💙👍💙
