Deborah Ellen Billington

January 26, 1959 - March 5, 2026

Deborah (Debbie) Ellen Billington passed from this life on March 5, 2026 at the Porta Caeli House in Tulsa, Oklahoma. She was born on January 26, 1959 in Murfreesboro, TN. Debbie was a proud member of the Cherokee Nation. After graduation from Charles Page High School in Sand Springs, Oklahoma she worked as a Long Distance Telephone Operator for 15 years.

Debbie attended the Massage Therapy Institute of Oklahoma and was certified in 1994. She served on the board of the Oklahoma chapter of the American Massage Therapy Association, which helped to establish licensing in the state. She had additional certifications and experience to provide services for people with various conditions such as fibromyalgia, cancer survivors, prenatal and age related issues. Debbie was passionate about sports massage and worked with college and professional athletes. A special place in her heart was being part of the team providing care for first responders, rescue and recovery workers, and even rescue dogs, immediately following the Oklahoma City Bombing in 1995.

Debbie is preceded in death by her son, Bryan Nicholas Jean, parents Sylvia Leeds-Nettles and Paul Billington, niece Katherine Irene "Katie" Cole. She is survived by her sister Joan Cole and husband Terry Thrash, brother Jeff Billington, nephews Austin Cole and Connor Edwards, uncles Fred Leeds, James Leeds, and Neil Billington along with other loving family and devoted friends.

Services to be held at Osage Forest of Peace at 141 Monastery Road in Sand Springs, Oklahoma, 74063 on March 26, 2026 at 2:00pm.
