

Deloris Viola Hardesty

July 8, 1962 - November 17, 2022

Deloris Viola Hardesty, age 60 passed this life on November 17, 2022 in Wagoner, Oklahoma. She was born on July 8, 1962 to her parents Robert Lewis and Jeanette Pearl (Berry) Tiger in Amarillo, Texas. Deloris moved to Tulsa, Oklahoma with her mother, Jeanette in her early years. Although Deloris lived a harder life than most she always stayed genuine and always had a huge heart. After following rough paths, she found Jesus and was able to change her life for the better. Regardless of what she had, she would always help another person. She even enjoyed her time as a nursing aide and being able to assist others who needed it. After moving to Tulsa, Deloris married David Hardesty. Following her marriage she became a parent to her two children that meant the most to her. Her daughter was always able to take care of her, even when she was young and as an adult. Because of all of this time together Deloris and her daughter became like best friends more than anything. Deloris was a loving character and one who will be deeply missed by many.

She is preceded in death by her daughter Christina Hardesty.

Deloris is survived by her mother Jeanette Tiger; siblings Dana Bortmos, Danny Sergeant, and Timothy Tiger; children Angela Thomas, and Christopher Hardesty; grandchildren Latrell Dansberry, Miah Dansberry, Michael Cooper, Matthew Cooper, Christian Cooper, Briana Hardesty, Anthony

Thomas, and Dante Thomas; along with other family members and friends.

A memorial service will be held on Sunday, December 11, 2022 at 1:00PM at the Red Bird Town Center located at 103 S. Main St., Red Bird, OK 74458. Minister Roosevelt Roy Jr. will be officiating.
