“ I am so very grateful to have been so loved and accepted by Don as my father for over 30 years. He was instrumental in my being the first of my family’s generation on the Rojo side to attend University and was so proud of my accomplishments. He gave me my first working car and ensured I knew how to check all the oils first. His love of animals and family coupled with an awesome sense of humor made him the wonderful man he is. I remember when my parents lived on Mission Canyon in Santa Barbara and he had the pony and two goats (which he said he adopted so he didn’t have to mow the lawn) and went outside to discover a woman sitting on a blanket on the lawn and her toddler son petting the pony. Turns out the woman thought their house was a park and instead of making her leave that one went into the house and brought out to Popsicle turns out the woman thought their house was the park and instead of making her leave that one went into the house and brought out a popsicle for the little boy. He was so generous. I will always love you, Don/Dad! Yours forever, Dennise
