

Dovie Idella Worcester

October 6, 1935 - February 23, 2022

Dovie Worcester (aka "The Butterfly Lady") passed away on Feb. 23, 2022 in Tulsa, OK.

She was born in Mansfield, AR, on Oct. 6, 1935. In her beautiful life, she shared her heart as a mother, a wife, a model, a clown, a spiritual counselor, a friend and shoulder to cry on. Many will remember her for the vibrant butterfly pins that she always wore on her back, left shoulder.

She traveled the world with her family, and found her late husband later in life (George Worcester) while visiting relatives in Oceanside, California. She moved with him back to Van Buren, AR where she shared many happy years of love with him, her church and her community.

She is survived by her son, Charles Brossman of Tulsa, OK and daughter, Dujuana Brossman of Long Beach, CA.

Dovie passed peacefully in her sleep, and flew into the arms of the countless people who love her on the other side. We love you mom and will miss you every day.

Dovie chose to be cremated, and her ashes scattered where her husband George's ashes were scattered in Arkansas at a date yet to be determined.

“ So honored to get to call this beautiful soul my friend. I know there is a special place in heaven for this woman who worried about others and did nice things for others despite all she was going through. What an absolutely beautiful and generous person! Thank you for allowing us to be part of your extended family Dovie! Love & miss you! 🦋🥹
