“ I have so many memories it would take me all day to list them all. Emmett is a laugh a minute. I will sure miss him and all his jokes. The night Scooter and Emmett got married I sat on his lap and he said that it felt wierd cause his hand was under my butt. He sure didn't move it. Lol and he teased me of having saddle bags lol. But we all know he was jist staring at my butt. I love u Scooter keep all your memories close to your heart and never forget all the times and memories that you shared. You guys truely are the real meaning of being in love
