“ We got to see Etta in November 2023, and she was so happy to see us. We hadn't seen her since the girls were young. We went for a late lunch and stayed until the evening. She told us she loved us so much and didn't want that day to end. She told us of her near-death hospital visit. We were just happy to see her. We have her picture on our fridge. Rest in peace, sweet Lady Etta.

“ Larry and I became acquainted with Etta, when Larry first met her at Reasors when his job was to bring in the carts. Later we would pick her up Sunday morning for church at Speak Life Meadow view. She loved the music, the people until she wasn't able to go. We loved hearing about her military service and how she was involved in the medical field. Larry would visit her more than twice a week and would call and check on her. He even walked to Braums and get favorite ice cream drink. She was very special to us and we will have our memories but we will miss her Larry and Rhonda Sanders, Owasso, Oklahoma 🇺🇸💕
