“ It has been many years since we've seen one another but the wonderful memories of "Cousin Fannie Mae" keeps alive in my mind/heart.

This "virtuous woman" (Proverbs 31:10-31) has completed all of her earthly requirements - well done.

Stay strong my family. God's abundant blessings.

Love.

“Sis. Fannie Clayton was a giant in the Connectional Lay Organization and in the development and early stages of development of the Connectional Lay Economic Development Corporation. She was hardworking, meticulous with her financial record keeping, and enthusiastic about the capacity of the members of the Connectional Lay Organization to raise $1,000,000 for economic development. She was also someone who encouraged and supported me in lay ministry.

My thoughts and prayers are with her children and other family members as they process and accept the reality that Sis. Fannie is no longer physically present with us here on earth. Though she has transitioned to a new home that is not made by hands, but that is eternal in the heavens, we are grateful to God for her life, living, and legacy.

Be comforted in knowing that earth has no sorrow, that heaven cannot heal.

With sincere sympathy,

*Paulette Coleman, Ph.D.
