

Gail Adair Smith

August 5, 1951 - December 10, 2023

Gail Adair Smith passed away peacefully at her home in Claremore, Oklahoma in the early morning hours of December 10, 2023, after a lengthy battle fighting cancer. Gail is survived by her husband, Jerry Smith, her children, Tamora Moore, Jacqueline Anderson, Jennifer Thompson, and Kyle Smith, her brother Doug Johnson, and her sisters Ann Borgmier and Sarah Hiss, and her twelve grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents David and Beryl Johnson, her son, Aaron Thomas, and her nephews Andy and Jake Johnson. Gail was born in Kansas City on August 5, 1951, to David and Beryl Johnson. She married Jerry Smith on November 8, 1986, and they began their life together in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Gail and Jerry joined their families bringing together their five children, Aaron, Tamora, Jacqueline, Jennifer, and Kyle. Gail's passion in life was to be a mother and her children were the most important thing in her life. She was proud to say that her children were her greatest accomplishment. Gail was a devoted wife and mother who enjoyed cooking, listening to music, and watching her children start families of their own. She loved having everyone together for family dinners and no matter where she went, she talked about how much she loved her family and always had pictures of her grandchildren to share. Gail will be missed by her family, friends, and all those that knew her. A funeral service will be held at 10:00 am on Thursday, December 21 st at First Methodist Church of Claremore located at 1615 OK-88 Claremore, OK 74017. To help celebrate Gail's life, please feel free to wear her favorite color purple.

“ I am so deeply saddened by your loss of Gail. Gail and I became instant best friends when my family moved to OP in 1965. We graduated HS together and were freshman roommates at KU. The last time I saw Gail was when she and her little boy, Aaron, visited at my parents' house. Sadly, we lost track of each other after I started my teaching career, married, and moved away. I wish we had reconnected before her passing. I will always remember Gail and her outgoing, fun-loving personality. Please accept my condolences and prayers.
