“ Happy Heavenly Birthday Sweetheart Harold, your birthday was yesterday and mine is today, it's also when we first met so many years ago, we fell in love at first sight, We left your past and mine and the ole gang of friends because we were tired of being harassed, hassled by Cynthia, or as you called her, troublemaker Cyndy and the Staff family, we got away from the druggies, the past period!! Life with you was so beautiful, especially when we moved to the countryside, farm life, and couple other places, no matter where we lived, our life and love were beautiful, we were totally in sync with each other, remember when you begged me to marry you, our wedding day was awesome , same day as your parents and I cried all the way through the ceremony because I was so happy being with you for life and beyond, I LOVE YOU HAROLD THE LOVE OF MY LIFE ❤️❤️ Please wait for me, to greet me when the Lord calls me home, please see and greet me as I cross over with kisses and hugs, in my Native tongue U kama kutu Nu , and rest in TRUE PEACE MY LOVE ❤️❤️🙏🙏

We would go to dances, parties, many different places, but my best memories are of you holding me in your arms and us kissing so very passionately, we were best friends, lovers, a very happily married couple and I'm the luckiest woman in the world for it all..... “ I was in the 5th grade when Harold and I first met. I still can picture him that day wearing jeans and boon-dockers and he would have that ornery smile pasted across his face that was so very transparent of his every thought. We would walk the streets late at night and evidently a group of us would end up at the Donut Shop where we would play pin ball till the early morning. It was a time of coming of age in which we experienced life together. Harold was a protector and other times he was the instigator of complete mischief. I wish there had been more time. I wish we could of had last goodbyes. Harold your smile will remain forever in my heart.....”

“ I will remember forever our friendship of almost 53 years (1968?) which included the personal time we spent together. The fun, crazy early years (some say to crazy) hanging out, riding around for hours usually in Jacks car, sitting at and riding around Steak-N-Shake, drinking way to much, going to parties. The middle years and all the off road 4-wheeling, fishing, hanging out with friends, going to concerts, dancing (yes dancing) family time with Stevie, Jennifer and Raymond, holidays with family, the enormous amount of time put into C&H Liquor. Forty years ago we quickly forgave each other for the mistakes and bad choices we made, which led us back to being close friends again, like in the beginning! You cared for and loved my children and family and that care and love was given back to you. I will miss our long “grocery store” conversations. My wish for you is eternal peace, that you knew you were loved, cared about and know you will will always be in my thoughts and heart! Cindy

So very grateful for all the wonderful memories of Harold that I hold in my heart. While too many years to mention have passed since I saw him last, I will never forget his warm and supportive laugh as he taught me new things... how to ride a bike, how to read, how to swim, how to snag ice cream from mom's ice cream truck. 🌀 Will continue to remember him fondly, and be grateful for all that he taught me. Rest In Peace Harold. All my love, Jenny
