

Howard Nolan Tackett

September 12, 1944 - January 8, 2018

Tackett, Howard Nolan, 73, passed away January 8, 2018 in Broken Arrow. Howard was preceded in death by his wife Judith A. Tackett. He is survived by his son, Howard T. Tackett; daughter Cheryl L. Funk; grandchildren Chelsea J. Wilson-Hess, Avarie H. Wilson, and Ashley J. Mara; and great grandson, Wyatt J. Wilson Hess.

After their marriage in 1962, Howard and Judy moved from their hometown Sallisaw to the Oklahoma City area. After many years with TG&Y and OTASCO, Howard purchased SunCraft Homes and he and Judy relocated to Broken Arrow. He proceeded to build hundreds of homes in the Tulsa area, and was honored as the Homebuilder of the Year in 1999.

Howard and Judy most enjoyed spending time with family and traveling. Howard was an avid golfer and restored classic automobiles. His sense of humor, wisdom, and loyal friendship will be greatly missed.

The Mental Health Association, for whom his granddaughter serves, may be considered for memorials.

A celebration of Howard's life will be held at 1:00 p.m. on January 13, 2018, at his church home, Whispering Hills Church of Christ in Broken Arrow.
