

Iva Delois Colbert

February 21, 1959 - July 14, 2024

It is with great sorrow that we announce the passing of Iva "Cooky" Colbert, a beloved soul who brought joy and laughter to everyone who had the privilege of knowing her. Cooky passed away at the age of 65 on Sunday 7/14/2024

Iva "Cooky" Colbert was born on February 21, 1959 to Jackie (Smith) and John Henry Colbert in Tulsa, Oklahoma. After graduating from Booker T. Washington high school, she went on to take some college courses in Pharmacy locally.

Cooky was known as a caring person, loved children and helping others. She often volunteered at local food banks and churches. Although loving, she was feisty and didn't mince words. Even her colorful language kept us on our toes and added to her charm. Whenever you visited her home, a few things were certain, the best holiday decorations, tear jerking laughter, Westerns or "scary pictures" on the TV and good food.

Cooky was predeceased by mother, father, brothers John A. Colbert, Bruce E. Colbert. She is survived by 2 sisters Stacy Colbert and Jacqueline (Colbert) Reed both of Tulsa, 1 daughter Natasha (Colbert) Lang of Silver Spring, MD, granddaughters Erynne Lang of Gaithersburg, MD, Camryn Lang of Austin, TX, and a host of nieces and nephews. Although she had 1 biological child there are many that called her moma, auntie and grandma. She will also be remembered fondly by a large extended family and countless friends who will forever cherish the memories they shared.

Cooky's legacy of love, laughter, and joy will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew her. She will be deeply missed but never forgotten.

May your spirit forever shine brightly in our lives.
