

Jack Elliott No Ear

April 21, 1972 - April 11, 2025

Jack Elliott No Ear went to his heavenly home around midnight on Friday, April 11, 2025, with his family by his side, shortly after entering hospice services. He was born on April 21, 1972, in Claremore, OK. He is survived by his daughter, Jaidyn Spotted Wolf of Sand Springs; her mother and his friend of 39 years, Vicki Ecret of Sand Springs; his son, Dexter No Ear of Clarinda, IA; his father, Van Spotted Wolf of Ponca City; sisters Brenda Spotted Wolf and Gwen Chibitty (No Ear); brothers Robert Spotted Wolf, Christian Spotted Wolf, Harrison No Ear Jr. and Billy Wildcat; and a host of nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by parents Frieda Shuckakosee (Johnson) and Harrison No Ear Sr.; and a sister, Carol Dollie Johnson.

Jack attended Oaks Mission School and Tulsa Community College. He worked primarily in industrial settings. Jack loved God and attributed his luck at beating death time after time to his deep love for God. He was quite a character and loved to make people laugh. Super social, Jack had a wide range of friends from judges and country music stars to the homeless on the streets. Jack never met a stranger and would give the shirt off his back, and often did, if he ran across someone in need. The world won't be the same without him.

Graveside services will be held at 10 am Thursday, April 17 at Woodland Memorial Park Cemetery in Sand Springs.

Cemetery Details

Woodland Cemetery

1200 N Cleveland
Sand Springs, OK 74063

Previous Events

Burial

APR 17. 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM (CT)

Woodland Cemetery
1200 N Cleveland
Sand Springs, OK 74063

Tribute Wall

AM

“ I will always remember seeing our uncle Jack with a Bible no matter where he was. He was so strong, kind, and loved people, even despite his own struggles. Such a sweet, selfless, GOD-fearing, humble man. Cared for us and loved us and the rest of his family so well. World's best uncle. We love you, Uncle Jack. And we know that you reside in the throne room of our All Mighty and Precious Heavenly Father and King JESUS. 💜💕🙏

Alexzandrya M. - May 12, 2025 at 11:09 PM

KW

“ We went to school together in oaks and I hadn't seen him since then but we reconnected through Facebook a few months ago and he was definitely a really great guy! RIP friend.

Kim Whorton - April 27, 2025 at 11:08 PM

DG

“ I work in the building Jack lived at and he was always so kind, quick witted and funny. He was often in the lobby brightening people's days with his own brand of humor. He was truly a one of a kind man. Gentle and kind hearted. Everyone here will miss him greatly.

Dylan Graybill - April 24, 2025 at 01:45 PM

FC

“ Sorry we couldn't make it to say Goodbye but it's never goodbye chebon only see you again, aye. Jack you were a light in this world not to be hidden but to shine for everyone and you did just that. I told Dawn of your passing and it's surreal. We will miss you. Thank you for being a true blue person. Then time I thought we lost Conrad your street brother my uncle and you said he's not dead Fawn I'll show you where to find him. ❤️🙏 Thank you now your with him and your mama Frieda my moms first friend when she made it to Tulsa. Yall are all together now all happy I wish the most happiest heavenly birthday you deserve it and I know the Lord is good and gave you some of that leaven fry bread. All that laughter and goodness you gave is now being rewarded and your mansion full of everything you loved. People and pets all of it there with you. Jesus gets to wash your feet and place your crown on your head. To be absent from the body is to be with Christ you were a chosen. Forever young brother and never forgotten.

Fawn Crowder - April 21, 2025 at 01:25 PM

AM

Amen. 🙏🙏❤️

Alexzandrya M. - May 12, 2025 at 11:11 PM

TA

“ You was a great friend Jack and even in your struggles you always had a smile and made me laugh you will be greatly missed. Rest easy my friend I will miss seeing you outside and greeted with a smile and hello

Tammy - April 18, 2025 at 01:55 AM

“ Jack you were an amazing friend, we have been through a lot of things together, you are missed but I know you are in a much better place, no more struggles. Rest well in the arm's of Father God my friend.

Paul Schmidt - April 17, 2025 at 09:32 AM

“ Jack was always a character but he loved his native brothers n sisters, quick to make introductions since he knew everyone. It's been a few months since I last seen him but we shared a meal and had some laughs.

Martha Barnett - April 16, 2025 at 10:45 PM

“ I had not seen Jack since he was a teenager, because we had been out in New Mexico. When we moved to Ponca City, someone would tell me Jack wants to talk with you, I saw more if him. His mother went to Church where my mother went. He was taught by his mother to call me uncle. It sadden me, today he tried very hard in life no matter what it was, he was a very friendly and polite person. He could get along with most people. He spoke of his daughter a lot. He knew he needed to get help, i would tell im don't quit Nephew, you can do this. He's crossed over now, no more pain, hurts, or having to worry about things, he is now with Jesus.

Clifford - April 16, 2025 at 06:46 PM

CL

So Sorry to the family for their loss

Clifford - April 16, 2025 at 06:51 PM

AM

Yes, he did!

Alexzandrya M. - May 12, 2025 at 11:14 PM

NW

“ I remember his ready smile and Eager attitude about Life everyday.. great friend and Brother 🙏 and believer in ALMIGHTY CREATOR GOD may CREATOR'S HANDS be up on us ALL at this point in time as we say Goodbye for now. 🙏🌅🌅🌅🌅🙏🕊️
Thanks for the memories

Nate Williams - April 16, 2025 at 06:57 AM

RB

“ I knew Jack when he was at oaks he was a little guy then probably 3rd grade ..Jack was a good kid and a a good friend...rest in peace little brother..

Ronald Blackfox - April 15, 2025 at 07:01 PM