

Jackie Kay Starr

August 5, 1953 - February 21, 2024

Jackie Kay Starr (Kelly), born on August 5, 1953, in Fort Worth, Texas, passed away on February 21, 2024, at the age of 70 in Tulsa, Oklahoma. She was a beloved mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother.

Jackie, known for her loving and caring nature, was sometimes a bit stubborn but always had a heart full of love for her family. She adored her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. She found joy in listening to Elvis Presley's music and watching Jeopardy. Jackie's talent for baking was evident in the delicious fudge she made, which will be remembered by all who had the pleasure of tasting it.

In her career, Jackie dedicated herself to the Corps of Engineers, showcasing her commitment to service and excellence in her work.

She is survived by her daughter Natalie Wilfong, her grandchildren Jacquelyn Hayes and Kelly Carpenter, and her great-grandchildren Oliver Allen, Dayton Allen, and Lakelynn Allen. Jackie was preceded in death by her father Jack Kelly, mother Irene Gay, first husband Norely Wilfong, and second husband Robert Starr.

A ceremony to honor Jackie's life will be held at Battlecreek Church on March 9, 2024. Serenity Funeral Home in Tulsa, Oklahoma, is assisting the family with the funeral arrangements.

Jackie Kay Starr will be deeply missed by all who knew her, but her memory will live on in the hearts of those she loved and who loved her.
