Although Jake is no longer with us in the physical world we are comforted knowing he is in our Lord’s embrace and reunited with loved ones in Heaven. May your happy memories of Jake continue to bring you comfort and joy.

Treasure your loved ones as we are never promised tomorrow. Always remember, you are loved and you are enough, always enough.

Poem for our dear son Jake:

He was a gift we cherished from the very start. We were blessed with his birth. He was our son, our life, who owned our hearts.

He wore his heart on his sleeve and cared to a fault that it would cause his loss never entering our thoughts.

Although a grown man he truly was a kid at heart, from his Star Wars collection to his 3D art.

We will miss you Jacob and love you so. You left a mother, a father and your sweet little bro.

Please watch over us as we must continue to live. We will think of you with all the love we have to give.

As you made us proud, we will make you proud each and every day until we meet again dear son in a galaxy far far away.

“ I remember when this young man came into this world, Cheryl was pregnant at the same time as my wife. Dean and I carpoled and served together in the Navy. Words fall short in times like this, may your family find peace in this season of mourning.

“ Cheryl and Dean.. We are SO sorry for your loss! Jake will always be deeply loved and forever remembered. We will always cherish the gift of having known Jake and the joy he brought into our lives. Remembering all the laughter and fun we had with Kelsey and Jake on our many adventures to Chuck E. Cheese, Discovery Zone, Hoppy Hollow Park, San Francisco Zoo and even Fossil Rim with the sucker stuck to his hat not to mention going through the drive through ordering “the usual” Those memories are forever etched in our hearts.

Jake’s spirit, kindness, and adventurous soul live on through every moment shared and every life he touched.

*Love you...
