

James Edward Franklin

August 15, 1952 - October 2, 2023

On August 15th, 1952, James began his journey on earth. His mother Susie was given the task to nurture, love, and guide him through his journey. James was the third oldest of eleven.

Today we gather to celebrate the life of James Edward Franklin. James was an old soul, he loved listening to old school and gospel. He loved to make others laugh and had one of the loudest laughs you have ever heard. His voice was one of those you will always remember, definitely Mr. Social! He enjoyed spending time with his family and friends, and outright socializing. And if you were out of his sight too long, he would go and hunt you down until he found you. He loved hanging out with his son, Allory, and playing/teasing with his grandchildren when they were younger.

James attended Tulsa Public Schools and graduated from BTW High School in 1969. James went to trade school and took up Painting and Auto Mechanic. He had many different occupations, with his longest reign at Hillcrest Hospital.

James's journey ended on October 2nd at 10:45 when God called him home.

John 14:3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.
