

James P. Hamsch

December 22, 1952 - October 19, 2017

James (Jim) Hamsch lost his courageous battle with cancer on October 19, 2017. His sense of humor will be deeply missed by his friends, family and customers at Lampton Welding Supply.

Jim loved traveling, cruises, his pets, humor, kindness and especially the love of his life, his wife of 36 years, Jeannie.

It was an honor to have known Jim as he was a humble, decent and gentle soul.

There will be a private service to celebrate his life for family and friends at 11:00 am, on Saturday, October 28, 2017. Please contact Jeannie for more information.

In lieu of flowers, please think about sending a donation to the American Cancer Society.

Tribute Wall

“ Jim,

in life we love, we share and we care, you my dear friend are all three, you will be sorely missed here. it was a true pleasure knowing you and thank you the memories and your friendship.

God Bless,

John H. Carreon

john H. Carreon - October 24, 2017 at 05:24 PM

“ So sad to see this fight has ended, but I will not say that cancer won. You and your wife taught many how hard the fight can be fought and that love conquers all. I admire your marriage and I hurt for your wife because I know she will be missing you greatly. I pray your memory and love along with God's love will bring your wife and family peace and comfort. The one time I met you, you were so sweet and humble and along stood your wife giggling!!! You brought her so much joy! Rest Jim, now that cancer cannot cause you any pain. You will be greatly missed but you will remain apart of many memories.

Robin Lanham - October 24, 2017 at 03:38 PM

KS

“ Jeannie, Life can be so hard at times. I am praying God wraps his loving arms around you and gives you comfort in the days ahead. I am so very sorry for the loss. No words seem to be adequate in moments like this but my thoughts and prayers are with you.
Kim Sells

KIM SELLS - October 24, 2017 at 03:22 PM

LM

“ Jim, I hardly had the chance to get to know you, but for the short time we worked together, I knew immediately that you were a great man and a great soul. I consider myself very fortunate to have known you.

Leon Martin - October 24, 2017 at 10:57 AM

LG

“ Jeannie, I am so sorry about your loss. Although, I never met your Jim, I know he had to be a really amazing person to be married to someone as special as you. In the coming days know you have a friend in me if you need anything. My thoughts and prayers are with you in this difficult time. Love, Lynda

lynda Garland - October 24, 2017 at 10:36 AM

MJ

“ Jeannie, I was so sorry to hear about Jim. May memories of Jim and the love of family and friends surround you and give you strength in the days ahead. I wish you peace to bring comfort, courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your heart. Know my thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. Love, Maggie

Maggie Johnson - October 24, 2017 at 09:52 AM

MM

“ What a strong and courageous fight you put up Jim. I wish I had had the chance to get to know you better, but for the short time I did, I am grateful. The wonderful stories that Jeannie tells about you and the travels you two had, it is easy to see how much you two loved each other and that love will continue on, never ending. That little whisper in your ear Jeannie, that's Jim, telling you to remember the good times and laughter. He will be with you always in your heart, soul mates.

Marla Martin - October 24, 2017 at 08:48 AM

LR

“ I am so sorry for your loss Jeannie. Although I only knew Jim for a very short time I certainly heard many funny stories from you about him. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Love, Leslie leslie reid - October 24, 2017 at 08:41 AM