Jamie Kaye Stephens-Phillips

Jamie Kaye Stephens Phillips, 26, of Sand Springs passed away on Thursday January 8, 2015. Jamie was born in Tulsa and grew up in Coyle, as a child she was shy but quickly out grew that leading into her teenage years. She was the type of person that you just wanted to be around. Jamie will always be remembered for her fun and outgoing personality someone who could make the room light up. Jamie married Zack Phillips and together they were blessed with three beautiful children, Jamie loved being a mother.

Her other love in life was being in and around the water, her two favorite spots in the world was the Illinois River and Lake Tenkiller, As a child she spent many summers growing up at the lake, she was raised with the mind set to help your neighbor, Jamie took that one to heart as she was the first on to help anyone she could. One of her favorite songs was the one her mother would sing to her and she then sang to her children, "you are my sunshine".

Jamie is preceded in death by dad, James Dentis; brother, Tristen Dentis; aunt, Mary Kaye Thomas; uncle, Thomas Don Stephens; cousins, Christopher Stephens and Odonelle Stephens; great grandmother, Mary; Nana, Robella; grand parents, Emma and Everett Dentis also grand parents, Robert and Alice Jones.

Left behind to cherish her memories are her parents, Bobby and Paula Jones; three children, Kylee Phillips, Ally Phillips and Jackson Phillips; four brothers, Ronnie Johnson, James Dentis, Trenton Dentis and Dakota Jones. Along with a host of other family and friends. Words can not express how very missed she will be.

A memorial service to honor the life of Jamie Kaye Stephens Phillips will take place on Saturday January 17, 2015 at 2: 00pm in the chapel of Serenity Funeral Home and Crematory, 4170 E. Admiral Pl. Tulsa. 918-292-8411
