“ I would like to express my sincere deepest heartfelt condolences to cousin Gina and daughters especially their hearts are broken they have lost a close sibling, hugs to them all. I had discovered on facebook that Jasmine and I shared the same family member" Aunt Rachel" after reading post on my old facebook page. I immediately sent Jasmine a friend request and I enjoyed her posts, she was fantastic beautiful inside and out. Then she mentioned Gina I knew exactly who her mom was and her grandmother and great grandmother...small world we both said. My page was hacked so we lost touch when I saw a post that Jasmine transitioned my eyes just swell up with tears and I did not believe until I called back home to family. I just would like to say to Jasmine if she can hear me in heaven, you will never be forgotten, and I know that you are flying high with the Angels. Heaven has a new angel..please continue to rest in peace until we all see you again!
Hugs Gina and all family.

“ Don't really have words other than I will always be able to hear your infectious laughter and will always keep our fun memories alive! From Us falling off my porch late night and breaking my tailbone, to our endless conversations about God and our faith. We found solace in being able to communicate our faith in each other. Miss you girl! I hate I couldn't say good bye, but I will definitely be seeing you again one day. Until then save a seat for me in Heaven. Love~
