“ Dear Cousins Jeff and Elisha,

I want you to know that I am deeply sorry for the loss of your handsome young son. The special moments, wonderful stories, and beautiful memories that connected you and your precious son will forever stand as a testament of depth of the love between you. I have no doubt that you provided him with everything exceptional parents give. You treated his special life with great care. You supported, strengthened, and comforted him on his journey into becoming a fine young man. Words cannot describe how much that means. I only hope that knowing this helps to ease your sorrow and pain. Please know that I have thought of about you and the rest of your family every day. I also keep DeNario's wife in my prayers. In the days ahead, know that I am sharing in your sorrow, wishing you peace and knowing that God will provided you with all you need to get through this unbearable loss. I know we don't communicate much, but if there is anything you need that I can provide don't hesitate to ask. May God bless and keep you.

“ My cousin Jeff, Elisha and family. I want you to know that you are always in my prayers. There has not been a day that has gone by that i have'nt thought about you. I haven't had the opportunity to see Denario grow up, my memories are when he came to Michigan and bonded with Nick one summer when they were young and played together at a family reunion. But one thing i know is that he had a lovingly and beautiful family. I love you family and I know Wyatt, Sherry, Tammy and Chad will be there. I love you.
