“ My baby brother, a momma's boy , well ! he is with her now. He had a good heart and was always willing to help if he could. He took everyone at face value , he loved family and tried to live a normal life for what he knew to be normal. He never had children as far as he knew. He spoke to a lot of family and friends the day he passed , i think he knew the train was coming , ill miss you jeff .
