“ " No crushed reed will he break; and as for a dim flaxen wick, he will not extinguish it. In trueness he will bring forth justice. "

Isaiah 42:3

At times we each feel as a crushed reed, or a flickering dim wick. Even at those times our God Jehovah sees our situation and value. We are waiting on the moment when all of those we love and treasure will be returned to us .

For you the Hightower family, we pray for you to have sustained strength and comfort in that knowledge.

Our Love and Prayers, Our Tears and Sadness are With You at this time.

“ Hightower family and Jay, Donnie, Scott and Kelvin, I have prayed everyday for you all, that even as uncomprehensible as this is to understand why a beautiful woman, mother, sister and friend would be taken so early. I know there is a plan. Keeping the memories of Jennie in my heart will help me. I remember coming to see my cousins in California. Lordy that was long time ago!. It was a great trip, lots of memories, one which every time we meet you don't let me forget that I drove the motorscooter into the fence. We do get a pretty good laugh out of it.

I know Jennie and I didn't get to spend a lot of our "grown up" days together, but you are always my cousin. I know you are helping your mom in heaven do great things. With a smile I will always remember.

All my prayers and love to the Hightower family and my cousins in this very sad time. Keep the faith, there is a plan.

“ *Dear Friends,
We are so sorry for your loss. It is a poignant reminder for all of us, about "time and unforeseen occurrence", and the need for us to treasure each moment.
For her, it will be like a blink of an eye before she will be reunited with her loved ones. We all look so forward to the joy of that time.
Roll it on Jehovah.
Our love and prayers are with you all.

“ To the Hightower Family,
We loved your mother and are anxiously awaiting to resume our friendship in Paradise. Our last conversation concluded with her going research a particular article for me to share with my daughter-in-law from China---always ready to help where she can! Our love and support through this time and always! Love, Leslie and Margie
