“ Jerry, I am sadden that I never got the chance to meet you in person, Your Grandchildren have told me many great things about you. But now you have been called home to heaven, but the stories will be told again and again even though you have gone. One story that I can recall that stays with me always is this one....

Two Wolves

One evening an old Cherokee told his grandson about a battle that goes on inside people. He said, 'My son, the battle is between two 'wolves' inside us all. One is Evil. It is anger, envy, jealousy, sorrow, regret, greed, arrogance, self-pity, guilt, resentment, inferiority, lies, false pride, superiority, and ego. The other is Good. It is joy, peace, love, hope, serenity, humility, kindness, benevolence, empathy, generosity, truth, compassion and faith.' The grandson thought about it for a minute and then asked his grandfather: 'Which wolf wins?' The old Cherokee simply replied, 'The one you feed.' Rest in Peace my Friend.
