“ I remember you living down the road from me in Cushing many moons ago. But none of that can ever compare to finding you on Facebook and then stepping out of my comfort zone and riding Jefferson bases to spend the weekend with you twice a month. We were soul mates just clicked and loved being near each other. I love you now, still, forever and always. You are my love and you always ❤️ will be. See you when I get there sweetheart I'll be looking for you 🥺
