“ John was a nice man. I had the opportunity to be his nurse for several years. When New Years or other holidays would roll around, I would bring him necklace beads or a bracelets to celebrate the holiday. I believe this made his day, he always smiled. I had the opportunity to sit at his side and talk and pray with him the day before he passed. He wore the July patriot bracelet I placed on his arm. It was a privilege to know him and to be his nurse here at the Claremore VA. RIP Mr. Wolohon, you will be remembered. Dear family, I am sorry for your loss.
